

S665

Virginia Apgar, M.D.

AFTER 3 DAYS RETURN TO
THE PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL
168TH STREET & BROADWAY
NEW YORK, N. Y.

Helene D. Mayer, M.D.

University of Chicago

Chicago, Illinois

THE PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK
THE INSTITUTE OF OPHTHALMOLOGY
THE SLOANE HOSPITAL FOR WOMEN
622 WEST 168TH STREET
NEW YORK, N. Y.

October 10, 1941

Helene D. Mayer, M.D.
University of Chicago
Chicago, Illinois

Dear Dr. Mayer:

Enclosed is an application blank for a residency in anesthesia at the Presbyterian Hospital.

We have a vacancy for January 1, 1942 and one for July 1, 1942. Experience is offered in all types of anesthesia agents and techniques. The residency qualifies one to take the American Board of Anesthesiology examinations. The salary starts at $50.00 monthly, with full maintenance.

Yours truly,

Virginia Apgar, M.D.

Virginia Apgar, M.D.

VA:s

Photograph of applicant must accompany application.

THE PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL
IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK
620 WEST 168TH STREET

ANESTHESIA
APPLICATION FOR THE POSITION OF JUNIOR RESIDENT IN ~~SURGERY~~
Blank must be filled out in handwriting of applicant.

Date _____

Full Name _____

Present Address _____ Tel. No. _____

Permanent Address _____

Place and Date of Birth _____

Married or Single _____ Religion _____

State Physical Disability, If any _____

Preparatory School or High School Education, with date of Diploma _____

College Experience or Degrees, with dates _____

Medical School, with year of Graduation _____

Hospital Experience, Clinical and Laboratory _____

What are your Professional Plans for the Future _____

NOTE: Letters of reference from at least three of your professors or teachers in medicine with whom you have come into personal contact must be sent direct to ~~Dr. Whipple~~. This application blank, properly filled in, must be returned to Dr. Allen O. Whipple, Department of Surgery, The Presbyterian Hospital, 620 West 168th Street, New York, N. Y.

ANESTHESIA

Virginia Apgar, M.D.